Directions

TYPES OF CERTIFICATION

Please note that the Request for I-20 must show funding that is accessible to the student immediately. You may not show property, pension, trust funds, etc. In addition, you may not use loans as proof of funding. Request for I-20 is valid for one year.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Personal Savings

Personal savings may be used for all or part of your financial support. Please indicate the name of your bank in the space provided on the Request for I-20 Form. An official of the bank must attach a current bank balance statement to verify the cash amount you have indicated. If you are relying solely on personal savings, you must show funding for the entire duration of your studies.

Parents and/or Sponsor

If your parents or another sponsor is willing to sponsor all or part of your studies, they must indicate the amount of funds on the Request for I-20 Form. Your sponsors must have an official of their bank attach a current bank statement to verify the cash amount indicated. This amount must cover a minimum of one year of our estimated program expenses. They must also sign the bottom of the below form.

Home Government or an International Organization

If you will be sponsored by your home government or an international organization/foundation, indicate the name of the agency and include a letter, signed by an authorized representative detailing the terms of your award. The letter of award should answer the following questions:

1. Will the sponsoring agency pay your tuition and fee expenses?
2. Will the agency provide you with living expenses? If yes, how much?
3. For how long is the sponsorship valid: one year, two years, or renewable until the degree is awarded?
4. Will the sponsors provide you with extra support should your spouse or children accompany you? If yes, how much?

Other

You may have other sources of income. Please note that these sources must be cash sources and accompanied by a certified letter and bank statement indicating the amount to be supplied. If funding will come from a citizen or permanent resident of the U.S., that sponsor must complete an Affidavit of Support I-134.

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION FOR DEPENDENTS

*List any dependents who will be living in U.S. with you. If your spouse and/or children plan to accompany you during your studies, you must provide evidence on the Request for I-20 of $4,500 additional funds for each dependent before they can be included on your immigration documents. Please attach a letter listing each dependent's last, first and middle names, date of birth, gender, relationship to you, city of birth, country of birth, country of citizenship, and country of legal permanent residence.
