

Acupuncture Associate Position in Portland, Oregon

Moving to Portland and want to work with an AIMC grad? Are you looking for a clinic where you can develop your specialty as a practitioner with mentorship and the business overhead handled for you so you can focus on being the best Chinese Medicine practitioner you can be? Do you have the drive to make a solid income doing what you are most passionate about in your personal life's mission: helping people feel their best with your medicine? Looking to grow roots in one clinic with the potential to be a partner in the future? Are you coachable and willing to learn? Then this may be the opportunity where you may want to invest your time and energy.

Willow Tree Wellness Clinic is seeking an Acupuncture Associate! We are a busy, thriving clinic in NE Portland and we are seeking a practitioner with a compassionate heart and excellent clinical skills. Someone who is passionate about East Asian Medicine and is committed to educate our local community about the benefits of incorporating our amazing medicine into their health care routine, we want to be their Chinese Medicine doctors for life.

This is a W-2 employee position with the potential to grow into a leadership position.

Days and Hours : Wednesday/Thursday/Fridays 2 – 6 pm and a Saturday morning 4 hour shift around 9 – 1 pm. A commitment to 4 days a week with three treatment rooms available during these shifts. You can start off seeing 2 patients an hour and work up to more when you are ready.

We offer front desk reception, furnished treatment rooms, online scheduling, EHR, linens service, acupuncture supplies and full granule pharmacy along with many patents.

Willow Tree is a well-established women's health, fertility and pregnancy care acupuncture clinic but we welcome people of all ages in our clinic. If you have a different area of specialty, we want to hear about it! We want to diversify the specialties available at the clinic so some other specialty in which you have accomplished specialty certification would be a great addition.

Ideal situation for a practitioner who simply wants to focus on offering the best patient centered care and treatments to our patients while working independently without having to manage a business.

Requirements :

- Must have a positive attitude and reassuring presence with patients
- Ability to see 2-3 patients per hour. We are a very busy clinic and our current schedule is full. We are looking with someone with good time management, who can handle multiple rooms.
- Excellent communications skills and the ability to work independently
- Computer savvy, able to use online scheduler and EMR software
- Licensed in Oregon, and have NCCAOM certification
- Carry your own malpractice and liability insurance during evaluation period
- Willing to participate in clinic outreach and networking opportunities
- Own a laptop and smart phone for EMR and ease of scheduling communications
- Must be able to work Saturdays.
- Prefer a practitioner with 2-3 years of experience

We offer:

- Fair, commission-based salary; the more patients you see, the more you earn!
- Established Client list
- Professional team consists of CPA, bookkeeper, marketing and advertising experts
- Online charting, scheduling and patient management, including automated appointment reminder emails and texts.
- Long term position will include malpractice insurance, annual CEU reimbursement and participation in retirement plan.
- Reception, booking and billing all provided for you
- Fun and supportive workplace environment!

Looking to fill the position long term, after a 90-day evaluation period.

Willow Tree Acupuncture & Wellness Clinic is located in central NE Portland in the Broadway business district. Parking for practitioners, easy parking for patients. Easy to get to from freeways, downtown and close to SE and NE Portland..
